First Friday: SpaceCamp Gallery

When: Fri., Feb. 4, 6–10 p.m.

Phone: 317-426-1321

It's rare to go to an art exhibit where YOU get to be the art. This show promises just that. The exhibit features the various byproducts that occur from a performance, whether they're videos or litter. One piece, by Igor Toshevski, declares that whatever happens in a marked-off area in front of the gallery is art. For more information, visit www.spacecampgallery.com or call 317-426-1321.
