Art in the wind

Forest hitting a corner franc mountain. Who suddenly sees itself in the second August half to an enormous fish in airy heights opposite, no hallucination experiences, but is in the open air exhibition in the middle „moved wind “in forest hitting a corner franc mountain. In continuing it will meet Trapezkünstlern, who fall from the clouds, it toward enormous wind trousers will go, which are not at all threatening, but presents itself the wind like a wedding garb. He will see various queue things, time and sand installations, poetic louvres and puzzling constructions, which expose themselves to the wind. „XXL Sturmwarnung “is an oversize BH, into which itself from the frog perspective some cloud mad could. Reintl: „Beach shade will remind there of the 250 million years old past of this region, wind harps and sound installations strange noises will produce. Verletzliche Zartheit and explosive strength are near together presented. “For the fourth time the district forest hitting a corner franc mountain already organizes, in this year for the first time in co-operation with the geo park forest hitting a corner franc mountain under the artistic direction of Reta Reintl the exhibition and the art competition „moved wind “. The resonance on the internationally written out competition to the topic „blast tuyere “was overwhelming: 140 applications from 17 countries and 4 continents are the guarantor for a various wind-look.

At four impressive places the objects, installations, videos, wind harps and performances are shown: in the wind park „tail wind “with Twistetal Gembeck with a great farsightedness, at „the Korbacher column “with their global history, in the futuristic national park center at the Edersee with High Tech Windkino and under days in the visitor mine Bertsch in mountain freedom. A master program with daily wind cinema, „border migration “, Multimediaperformance with dance on the ridge, child award of the prize by Schneewittchen and summer jazz provides for additional attractions. Two weeks long can wind and art-inspired the central mountain landscape to roam across, to foot, with the wheel or with the car. They will meet so some artist. On 31 August the exhibition ends to away Sommerjazz with a conclusion meeting starting from 17 o'clock at the Korbacher column with the award of the prize, Multimedia documentation with „Feabrik “and blow. This week those took Exhibition already forms on.

„For days we are with the building yards of the exhibition cities and municipalities, the employment society and the BBZ the circle craftsman shank thereby the 115 exhibits in position to bring “, report Reta Reintl. Everywhere werkeln artists from all over the world at their installations. So also Joachim Jacob from Hamburg, which builds „the tower of the hoist in Vöhl with support of Fritz shepherd “. „Everyone, which is here, is enthusiastically of landscapes, people and helpfulness “, like that Reintl. The variety of the exhibits in and with the landscape really already is impressing. The opening takes place on today's Sunday, 17 August, at 11 o'clock in Twistetal Gembeck. Far places of issue are out-described. It will give, promises leckere culinary offers „Knüfi “out basket oh. Thus for example a Windmüllerbrunch waits on Sunday morning.
