More than 160 participants from 27 countries will take part in the Tashkent International Biennale of Contemporary Art opening on October 11, 2018

This was reported at a press conference held in the conference hall of the Union of Artists. The organizer of the event is the Academy of Arts of Uzbekistan. The main theme of the Biennale is "Art and Technology. Pros and cons" - about the place of the artist in the modern global and technological world as a unique creative unit with its artistic product. It should be noted that the VIII Tashkent International Biennale of Contemporary Art will be held this year, declared in Uzbekistan as the "Year of Support for Active Entrepreneurship, Innovative Ideas and Technologies".

Chairman of the Academy of Arts of Uzbekistan Akmal Nuriddinov, addressing the assembled foreign participants of the upcoming international arts forum, their Uzbek colleagues, journalists, noted that its main goal is to increase the prestige of Uzbekistan on the international artistic scene, interaction and exchange of artistic experience among artists from many countries of the world in contemporary art. At the same time, we are talking about raising the cultural and intellectual level of society and young people, as well as strengthening cultural ties between nations. It is noteworthy that among the participants are contemporary artists and curators from Europe, Russia, the USA and Latin America, Southeast and Central Asia. They present their creative works and projects - among them video art, installations, photo art, conceptual painting, sculpture,

The official opening ceremony of the VIII Tashkent International Biennale of Contemporary Art will be held on October 10 at 17:00 in the Central Exhibition Hall of the Academy of Arts of Uzbekistan. The biennial will include an international scientific-practical conference "Living Art with Technology in the Context of the Present", discussion panels and lectures with the participation of leading theorists and curators on the topic of modern art.

Biennale events will be held in Tashkent at the Central Exhibition Hall of the Academy of Arts of Uzbekistan, Tashkent House of Photography, Ikuo Hirayama International Caravanserai of Culture, Gallery of Fine Arts of Uzbekistan, State Museum of Arts of Uzbekistan, Palace of Youth Creativity, Bonum Factum Gallery.

The exhibitions will also be held in Bukhara in the local history museum in the Ark fortress, the museum of Sitorai Mohi Hossa. Many other details at the press conference were communicated by the heads of the international jury, the Directorate of the Biennale, and its curators. About the particular importance of the upcoming October 13 in the hall of the Union of Artists of Uzbekistan scientific-practical conference, which will discuss many burning issues of modern art, said its moderator, academician Akbar Khakimov.

The Biennale in Uzbekistan has been held for 16 years, which has allowed us to accumulate rich experience, it already has its own traditions and they are multiplying. Next year it will be devoted to applied art.

"We are very glad to take part in this biennale, the famous Uzbek artist Mukhtarkhan Isanov said in an interview with us. There are very interesting meetings with foreign colleagues ahead, and I think that we are in for an in-depth exchange of views in order to understand the ways for the further development of modern art and what we need to do in order to work at the highest modern standards. It is also encouraging that many young artists are taking part in the Biennale this time and they can get rich experience here.

The official closing of the Biennale and the awarding of participants will take place on October 14 in the Central Exhibition Hall of the Academy of Arts of Uzbekistan.

In the Central Exhibition Hall of the Academy of Arts of Uzbekistan launched a personal exhibition of the artist from Kazakhstan Batuhan Baymen "TYUMA08"

It can be said that in Tashkent, the exhibition of graphics, especially such a great master from neighboring Kazakhstan, as Batukhan Baimen, was not so deep in content, diverse in subjects, in Tashkent for a long time. It was made possible thanks to the joint efforts of not only the Academy, but also the Union of Artists of Kazakhstan, the Kazakh National Cultural Center and the Committee on Interethnic Relations and Friendly Relations with Foreign Countries.
